

China Airlines Ltd.
Procedures for Handling Material inside Information

Formulated and implemented after approval by the 19th Board of Directors at the 4th meeting on Dec. 6, 2012

Amended by the 22nd Board of Directors at the 7th meeting on Nov. 9, 2022

Article 1: These Procedures are specially adopted to establish sound mechanisms for the handling and disclosure of material inside information by the Company, in order to prevent improper information disclosures and to ensure the consistency and accuracy of information released by the Company to the public.

Article 2: The Company shall implement its handling and disclosure of material inside information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, the rules and regulations of the Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation, and these Procedures.

Article 3: These Procedures shall apply to all directors, managerial officers, and employees of the Company. The Company shall ensure that any other person who acquires knowledge of the Company's material inside information due to their position, profession, or relationship of control shall comply with the applicable provisions of these Procedures.

Article 4: For the purposes of these Procedures, the term "material inside information" refers to information that is defined as material inside information by the Securities and Exchange Act, other applicable laws and regulations, and the applicable rules and regulations of the Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation or the Taipei Exchange.

Article 5: The Company's Finance Division is tasked with handling material inside information. The division shall have the following functions and authorities:

1. Responsibility for formulating the drafts of these Procedures and any amendments to them.
2. Responsibility for receiving inquiries in connection with the methods of handling material inside information, and for consultation, review, and recommendations relating to these Procedures.
3. Responsibility for receiving reports on unauthorized disclosures of material inside information and formulation of corresponding measures.
4. Responsibility for designing a system for preserving all documents, files, electronic records, and other materials related to these Procedures.
5. Other activities related to these Procedures.

Article 6: The Company's directors, managerial officers, and employees shall exercise the due care and fiduciary duty of a good administrator and act in good faith when performing their duties. No director, manager, or employee with knowledge of material inside information of the Company may divulge the information to others before it is made public. No director, managerial officer, or employee of the Company may inquire about or collect any non-public material inside information of the Company not related to their individual duties from a person with knowledge of such information, nor may they disclose to others any non-public material inside information of the Company of which they become aware for reasons other than the performance of their duties.

Article 7: Proper protection of confidentiality shall be given to files and documents containing the Company's material inside information when transmitted in written form. When transmitted by email or other electronic means, such files and documents must be processed with appropriate security technology, such as encryption or electronic signatures. Files and documents containing the Company's material inside information shall be backed up and stored in a secure location.

Article 8: The Company shall ensure that the firewalls specified in the preceding two articles are established, and take the following additional steps:

1. Adopt adequate control measures for the firewalls and perform periodic testing.
2. Enhance measures for custody and maintaining the secrecy of files and documents containing non-public material inside information of the Company.

Article 9: Any organization or person outside of the Company that is involved in any corporate action of the Company relating to a merger or acquisition, major memorandum of understanding, strategic alliance, other business partnership plans, or the signing of a major contract shall be required to sign a confidentiality agreement, and may not disclose to another party any material inside information of the Company thus acquired.

Article 10: The Company shall comply with the following principles when making external disclosures of material inside information:

1. The information disclosed shall be accurate, complete, and timely.
2. There shall be a well-founded basis for the information disclosure.
3. The information shall be disclosed fairly.

Article 11: Any disclosure of the Company's material inside information, except as otherwise provided by law or regulation, shall be made by the Company's spokesperson, or by a deputy spokesperson acting in such capacity in a confirmed sequential order. When necessary, the disclosure may be made directly by a responsible person of the Company.

The Company's spokesperson or deputy spokesperson shall communicate to outside parties only information within the scope authorized by the Company, and no personnel of the Company, other than those serving as the Company's responsible person, spokesperson, or deputy spokesperson, may disclose any material inside information of the Company to outside parties without authorization.

Article 12: The Company shall keep records of the following in respect of any disclosure of information to outside parties:

1. The person who discloses the information, the date, and the time.
2. How the information is disclosed.
3. What information is disclosed.
4. What written material is delivered.
5. Any other relevant details.

Article 12-1: In the event that any major resolution adopted by the Company or important event taking place meets the criteria under the Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation Procedures for Verification and Disclosure of Material Information of Companies with Listed Securities, the responsible unit shall provide the content of material information and relevant materials on the day when the event occurs to the head of the unit, who shall then approve it, and send it to the Finance Division for review and verification. The material information shall be released after it is approved prior to a deadline stipulated by law.

The Company shall retain the following materials for at least five years after material information is released:

1. Contents evaluated.
2. Signature or seal of personnel responsible for evaluation, review, and approval as well as date and time of evaluation, review, and approval.
3. The content of the material information released and the applicable laws and regulations adopted as the basis.
4. Other relevant information.

Article 13: If a media agency releases information that is in any respect inconsistent with material information disclosed by the Company, the Company shall promptly issue a clarification on the Market Observation Post System (MOPS) and request that the media agency correct the information.

Article 14: Any director, managerial officer, or employee of the Company that becomes aware of any unauthorized disclosure of the Company's material inside information shall report to the responsible unit and the internal audit department of the Company as soon as practicable. Upon receipt of a report made pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the responsible unit shall formulate corresponding measures. When necessary, it may invite members from the internal audit and other departments to meet for discussion of the measures, and shall keep a record of the results of the measures for future reference. The internal auditors shall also perform such audits as their duties may require.

Article 15: The Company shall take measures to discover those responsible and take appropriate legal action against any personnel under either of the following circumstances:

1. Personnel of the Company disclose material inside information without authorization to any outside party, or otherwise violate these Procedures or any other applicable law or regulation.
2. A spokesperson or deputy spokesperson of the Company communicates to any outside party any information beyond the scope authorized by the Company, or otherwise violates these Procedures or any other applicable law or regulation.

If any person outside the Company divulges any material inside information of the Company, thereby causing damage to any property or interest of the Company, the Company shall pursue appropriate measures to hold the person divulging the information legally liable.

Article 16: These Procedures shall be incorporated into the Company's internal control system. The internal auditors shall keep themselves regularly informed of the status of compliance with these Procedures and shall prepare related audit reports, so as to ensure full implementation of the procedures for handling material inside information.

Article 17: At least once per year, the Company shall conduct educational campaigns to promote awareness among all directors, managerial officers, and employees with respect to these Procedures and related laws and regulations.

The Company shall also provide educational campaigns to new directors, managerial officers, and employees in a timely manner.

Article 18: These Procedures, and any amendments to them, shall be implemented upon approval by the Board of Directors.
